

Dear Parents SATS Huge congratulations to our Year 6 pupils, who completed their SATs with fantastic resilience and 100% effort. We are incredibly proud of each and every one of them. A big thank you to Mr Curtis and the Year 6 team for their dedication and support throughout the week, as well as to their Year 5 friends for looking after them so thoughtfully. Of course, we are also very grateful to families for their continued support at home. The children rounded off the week with some well-deserved fun, enjoying rounders and cricket along with some picnic treats.

U9's Quad Kids This afternoon we returned to school as winners of the U9 Quad Kids which is a 50m sprint, 400m middle distance run, Howler throw and Standing long jump . We now qualify for the West Oxfordshire Finals at Wood Green School on June 23rd. Congratulations to William, Austin, Theodore, Sammy, Jamie, Luna, Freya, Chloe, Phoebe and Myla. Thank you to Mrs Backhurst and Mrs Watchorn who volunteered for the afternoon.

The 'hands of time' project is now proudly displayed in The Cotswold Care home capturing responses from old and young during intergenerational week. Childhood dreams ranged from becoming a "Farmer" to a "Footballer". Important inventions included items like the "Hearing Aid" and the "Television". Favourite sounds from "Birds" singing to "Other people laughing". The clock offers a true reflection of life across the ages.
