

Dear Parents,

What a busy week! We have had Rev Stamps visiting in Collective Worship and Wilma and volunteers listening to readers. We have welcomed staff from 3 partnership schools for training as well as had our bursar and governors visit working on safeguarding, budgeting and premises!

We would like to say thank you for ensuring you communicate promptly with us about absence and appointments. We appreciate you trying to minimise disruption to school hours for medical appointments and using MCAS daily when your child is off ill. Please be aware, if your child is off for 5 days or more, we may contact you so we can talk to your child or ask for medical evidence in order to meet our safeguarding duties.

Thankyou to the parents who attended the residential information meetings. If you weren't able to, don't worry, information will be emailed out by next week. More information and another opportunity for questions will be available nearer the time.

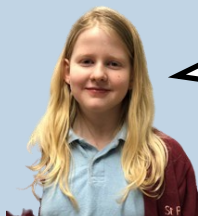

A reminder that our Forces Lead, Miss Wright is now back at school. If you are a forces family and need any support, you can contact her via the school office for a cuppa and a chat. On our website are forms to let us know if deployment or relocation are relevant to your family to help us plan and support your child.

We wrote some TSP prayers with Mrs Smith that we use in Collective Worship on Fridays. TSP stands for Thankyou...Sorry...Please.

Olivia, one of our Worship Warriors, reports:

Emma, one of our Reading ambassadors, reports:

We are preparing activities for World Book Day linked to our author visit who is coming the previous day. Don't forget to get a costume ready! Please remember you don't have spend money. Characters like: Lottie Brooks; The railway children; Boy at the back of the class; Girl at front of the class; Danny (champion of world); Boy who fooled the world and lots more—all wear regular clothes.

DATES COMING UP (parents are welcome at events in italic bold)

Tue 20th	Pegasus Swimming Lesson 3
Thu 22nd	Cygnus Outdoor Explorers
Tue 27th	Pegasus Swimming Lesson 4
Wed 28th – 30th	Book Fair 3.00pm-3.30pm

PARKING!

Residents are letting us know that some people are parking inconsiderately on street corners. Please make sure you don't block driveways or junctions and try to park on one side of the road only to avoid causing hazards that may cause an accident.

Every week in Friday Worship we celebrate achievement and effort. We welcome anything from outside school if pupils want to share. Please do email the office and let us know.

Have a lovely (and hopefully not too wet!) weekend

Diana

WHAT HAS MY CHILD BEEN LEARNING? THIS WEEK?

- Cygnus Count carefully with 1:1 correspondence whilst playing maths games and write carefully with correct letter formation and holding the pen/pencil correctly. Also learning a new wake and shake song about the planets.
- Tucana Tucana have looked at prepositional language in English, describing where things are in relation to each other. They have also discovered what some animals do in winter to survive.
- Phoenix learning about the structure of the earth, what a force is and have started reading 'The Tear Thief'
- Pegasus Making series circuits, revising improper fractions to mixed numbers and carving in soap!
